Invitation to the Distinguished Lecture by

Prof. Dr. phil. Tessa Hofmann

Γενοκτονία εν ροή – Cumulative Genocide: The massacres and deportations of Greek Orthodox Christians in the Ottoman Empire (1912-1923)

Lecture in English | Υπέρτιτλοι στα ελληνικά

Saturday, 3 June 2017 at 19.00

Hôtel Continental, Place de la Gare 2, 1001 Lausanne

Tessa Hofmann is a scholar of comparative genocide studies with focus on the Ottoman destruction of the indigenous Christians of Asia Minor and Mesopotamia. In her lecture she will speak about the near-to-complete destruction of the rum millet (Romäer, in greek: Ρωμηοσύνη) during the process of nation state building, looking also into the specifics of the Greek fate compared with the more known and researched genocide against the Ottoman Armenians.
